

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Icon of Raising the Daughter of Jairus

Twelve Years

When the woman with a hemorrhage learned that the Lord said to the leader of the synagogue, “Believe, and your daughter will live,” she thought to herself that he who could bring back the soul of a little girl of twelve into her body would also be able to take away an illness of twelve years and expel it from the body. When she heard him say, “Believe firmly and your daughter will live,” this woman reflected, “I can give the faith he requires as the price.” The healing came forth from his mouth, and he negotiated as its price the faith expressed by the woman’s mouth. He gave clear healing and demanded a clear price. The healing that came out from his lips could be heard publicly, and he required from the lips a faith openly professed. Although the woman professed before everyone, they did not believe her, especially since her pains were hidden. When the Lord opened the eyes of the blind man, they called him a madman, and when he restored Lazarus to life, certain people, even among those who had seen for themselves, did not believe. This is why he restored the little girl of twelve years to life. He who was able to put the continued vitality of twelve years in the body back into its place was also able to arrest and banish from its place a flow of blood that continued for twelve years. He who was able to alleviate one illness was also able to banish another. He who was able to vivify all the dead members of this little girl was also able to heal the woman’s womb.

Classes are held in the lower level first two classrooms.

NOVEMBER HOLODOMOR REMEMBRANCE – 1932-1933 – 89 YEARS AGO

We remember the millions of innocent people who perished during the state-sponsored genocide inflicted by Soviet forces upon our Ukrainian people from 1932-1933. We must remember and work to see that no one around the world, in Ukraine, or even our own nation, suffers from hunger or malnutrition. Please pray for the people of Ukraine who continue to know tremendous suffering still by Russia.

WELCOME FATHER VOLODYMYR RADKO – AXIOS-AXIOS-AXIOS – NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday, November 13, we will greet Fr. Volodymyr as he celebrates Liturgies of Thanksgiving at our 9:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Divine Liturgies. Archbishop Borys ordained him in Ukraine on February 15, 2022, just as the situation there was becoming more dire. As such, he has not had much opportunity to celebrate the gift of his priesthood. He has begun a doctoral studies program in moral theology at the Catholic University of America and will visit with us from time to time. He also serves as the Director of Vocations for the Archeparchy of Philadelphia. Fr. Volodymyr will offer his first priestly blessing to our parishioners after each Divine Liturgy on Sunday. It is customary to offer him a gift, to celebrate his new and sacred ministry for Christ, His Church, and His people. Everyone is invited to share some lunch and cake with him after each Divine Liturgy.

Our intercessory prayer for the sick and the aged is truly helpful and comforting. In your Christian Charity, kindly remember our sick parishioners in your prayers and perhaps a card or note.

God With Us Catechism

In the Gospel today we are reminded (and warned) that the way we live in this life will have everything to do with how we live in the next. While some may use this Gospel to condemn money or riches in general, this is a misuse of the text. The Gospel reminds us that it is not the “good things” which are evil but what we do with what we have that matters. While the “rich man” was blessed to have many good things, he refused to share these blessings with those around him. In the end it is Lazarus who is remembered by name and whose virtue is proclaimed in the Church today while the “rich man” remains nameless. He who made a name for himself on this earth is forgotten by the very ones he wanted to impress while the one who was counted lower than the dogs on this earth is elevated today by public proclamation in every church throughout the world.

PASSAGE FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION:

Tobit 4:7 “Do not turn your face away from any poor man, and the face of God will not be turned away from you.”
